Re: FEMA 2017-FEFO-00165 First Interim Response

Dear Mr. Janca:

This is the first interim response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS)/Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), dated October 11, 2016 and received by this office on October 21, 2016. You requested a copy of the following records of the Strategic National Risk Assessment (SNRA):

1. SNRA 2015 Findings [Report], May 2015;
2. SNRA 2015 Technical Appendix, May 2015;
3. SNRA 2015 Working Papers, May 2015;
4. PPD-8 Implementation Plan, May 2011;
5. SNRA Terms of Reference, June 2011;
6. SNRA 2015 Update Background and General Guidance, February 2015;
7. SNRA 2015 Qualitative Data Instructions, February 2015; and,
8. SNRA 2015 Risk Summary Sheet Instructions & Template, February 2015.

A search of FEMA's National Preparedness Directorate (NPD) for documents responsive to your request produced a total of 703 pages. Of those pages, we have determined that 43 pages are releasable in their entirety, and 647 pages are withheld in their entirety, pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(5), FOIA Exemption 5.

FOIA Exemption 5 protects from disclosure those inter- or intra-agency documents that are normally privileged in the civil discovery context. The three most frequently invoked privileges are the deliberative process privilege, the attorney work-product privilege, and the attorney-client privilege. After carefully reviewing the responsive documents, we determined that portions of the responsive documents qualify for protection under the following privilege(s):

- Deliberative Process Privilege

The deliberative process privilege protects the integrity of the deliberative or decision-making processes within the agency by exempting from mandatory disclosure opinions, conclusions, and recommendations included within inter-agency or intra-agency memoranda or letters. The release of this internal information would discourage the expression of candid opinions and inhibit the free and frank exchange of information among agency personnel.

The remaining thirteen pages contain equities that are of interest to the DHS; as such, we are consulting with their office regarding the releasability of those pages. Upon completion of the consultation we will provide you with our final response letter.

You have the right to appeal if you disagree with FEMA's response. The procedure for administrative appeals is outlined in the DHS regulations at 6 C.F.R. § 5.8. In the event you wish to submit an appeal, we encourage you to both state the reason(s) you believe FEMA's initial determination on your FOIA request was erroneous in your correspondence, and include a copy of this letter with your appeal. Should you wish to do so, you must send your appeal within 90 days from the date of this letter to fema-foia@fema.dhs.gov, or alternatively, via mail at the following address:

As part of the 2007 FOIA amendments, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:

Office of Government Information Services
National Archives and Records Administration
8601 Adelphi Road- OGIS
College Park, MD 20740-6001
E-mail: ogis@nara.gov
Web: <https://ogis.archives.gov>
Telephone: 202-741-5770/Toll-free: 1-877-684-6448
Facsimile: 202-741-5769

Provisions of the FOIA allow us to recover part of the cost of complying with your request. In this instance, because the cost is below the $25 minimum, there is no charge.

If you need any further assistance or would like to discuss any aspect of your request, please contact us and refer to FOIA case number 2017-FEFO-00165. You may send an e-mail to fema-foia@fema.gov, call (202) 646-3323, or you may contact our FOIA Public Liaison in the same manner.

Sincerely,
